PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

G.O.Ms.No.2914. dated 26-9-1947.

READ AGAIN:

G.O.348, Public Works (Mar.) dated 14-2-1939.

ORDER:

His Excellency the Governor of Madras hereby directs that a sum representing the balance of the amount taken over from the Provincial Minor Ports Fund to the General Revenues in 1938-39 with reference to the Madras Minor Ports Fund Act, 1938 (Act XIX of 1938), be returned to the former fund with compound interest at 3 % per annum. The amount to be repaid to the Minor Ports Fund will exclude the sums already returned to the fnd in 1944-45 1945-46 and 1946-47. The Accountant Generalis requested to calculate the actual amount due to the fund, calculating interest upto the end of 30th September 1947 and to adjust the amount to the credit of the Minor Ports Fund as refund under the head "XIV. Ports and Pilotage" in the accounts of September 1947.

2. The Presidency Port Officer should invest amounts not required for immediate expenditure on Schemes, in approved securities after giving sufficient advance intimation to the Government of the proposed investment.

3. He is requested to submit proposals in due course for the utilisation of the amount on Post War Schemes of Port Department and also other approved schemes including reduction of Port dues.
